

International Association of Law Libraries Newsletter February 2015

Greetings! Although we are one sixth of the way through the calendar year, a belated Happy New Year! And for subscribers who have just celebrated Chinese New Year, we wish you

News from the Board

President Jeroen Vervliet and Board Liaison Member David Gee recently visited Board Member Ivo Vogel and the Local Organising Committee in Berlin to view the preparations for the meeting in September. The exciting news is that the website is now online for the 34th annual meeting in Berlin, from September 20 to 24, 2015. The provisional Program is available, and demonstrates the range of topics and the depth of coverage to be offered. Registration begins on April 1.

Scholarships and bursaries to attend the Annual Meeting are offered by IALL – find preliminary information on the website and see if you might be eligible.

Are you aware of the International Calendar of Events maintained on the IALL website? It's a great one-stop shop to see what conferences and meetings are coming up.

The small Working Group to review the IALL Constitution continues to discuss several aspects of the planned changes, and will report in May/June. The current Constitution can be read here.

Thank you for all who have made their membership renewals for 2015. Our Membership Year began on January 1, 2015. The great news is that the rates have remained constant, and you can find the membership/renewal form online. (We welcome new members, and if you are reading this newsletter via INT-LAW or the AALL Foreign & International SIS, and are not yet an IALL member, why not consider joining?)

If you have a suggestion for IALL, there are several Committees whose tasks include managing a range of Association related issues. The list of these Committees, and the members, is on the website, and your input would be welcome.

And finally, please remind your colleagues that they can sign up to the IALL Listserv to receive future Newsletters.

The International Journal of Legal Information

Latest issue: Vol. 42, Number 1.

This issue includes excellent coverage of the conference in Barcelona.

More information on accessing or publishing in IJLI can be found here.
