

International Association of Law Libraries Newsletter March 2016

News from the Board

Elections for a new IALL Board

The Nominations Committee has done its work, and has created a slate of candidates for the elections. Details of the candidates, as well as the procedure for self-nomination, were included in an email sent to members from IALL Secretary Barbara Garavaglia on March 10. Full details are available on the IALL website.

Results of the vote on the Constitutional Changes proposed for IALL

The results of the vote on constitutional changes was sent to members on 15 January, in the following message:

The voting on the proposed amendments to the IALL Constitution closed on January 11, 2016 and the amendments have been adopted by a majority of those voting. The amended IALL Constitution has been posted to the IALL website.

It's Still Membership Renewal Time!

Many of you will have received a message reminding you to renew your IALL membership. The message was sent from within a new membership platform we are working with called "Wild Apricot." The messages will have come from an email address "International Association of Law Libraries [<mailto:IAOLL36@wildapricot.org>]." The message is legitimate and is not spam. To renew your membership, you should use the Join IALL Membership Application and renewal form at <https://iall.org/membershipSA/>

Registration is open for the 35th IALL Annual Course, 2016, in Oxford

The Annual Meeting for 2016 takes place earlier than usual, from 31 July to 3 August. The conference website has information about the programme and the venue, as well as the accommodation, and the sights in Oxford. This is a link to the registration form. We hope to see many of you in Oxford this summer!

Scholarship applications now open

Details of the IALL scholarships, which provide assistance to attend the IALL Annual Course, can be found on the IALL website. The deadline is Sunday 1 May for applications.

The International Journal of Legal Information

Latest issue: Vol. 43, No 2-3 (Summer - Winter 2015)

Transitional Justice Alexandra Garcia

The Power of Social Movements and the Limits of Pluralism Emily Becker

Tax Confidentiality in Sweden and the United States Anna-Maria Hambre

An Outline for the Study of Ethiopian Constitutional Law Tsegaye Beru

100 Years Ago: A Bibliographical Calendar of Diplomacy and International Law.. Peter Macalister-Smith and Joachim Schwietzke

Legal Education in China: More English Language Materials Roderick O'Brien

Frontiers of Legal Information: The U.S. Law Librarians of the Future Jootaek Lee

Plus 9 Book Reviews

More information on accessing or publishing in IJLI can be found here.

Latest posts from the Blog

Global Skills for U.S. JD Students (March 3, 2015)

Book Restoration Sponsored by the International Association of Law Libraries (February 4, 2016)

What's So Special about January 28, 2016? Why it's the 10th Anniversary of Data Protection Day, of Course! (January 20, 2016)

Australia Day? (January 13, 2016)

Free online national legislation for South Africa (January 7, 2016)

Bridge of Spies (December 16, 2015)

The IALL blog welcomes contributions from members or other colleagues. If you would like to submit a piece, please contact Kerem Kahvecioglu.

IALL on Facebook

This newsletter is sent on behalf of the Board of the International Association of Law Libraries.