Farewell

This will be my final Newsletter on behalf of IALL; a new Board member will take over from the next issue. We started publishing these newsletters in November, 2014. Although modest, our intention was to consolidate our news so that you had a source of IALL news on a regular basis. An Association is only as strong as its membership, and we urge you to spread the news about IALL, and its efforts to bring together law librarians throughout the world. So if you are not yet a member, please join us! Ruth Bird

The International Journal of Legal Information (now published by CUP)

Latest issue: Vol. 44, No 1 (Spring 2016) – (Proceedings from the 34th Annual Course in Berlin)

Transnationalization of Law and Legal Scholarship Thomas Duve

The Mediation Committee of the Bundestag and Bundesrat Claus Koggel

Real Property Law in the Unification Treaty Joanna Schmidt-Rantsch

Human Rights in Germany Beate Rudolf

Plus 7 Book Reviews
